

MANY ELECTIONS FOR NEXT TUESDAY

Twelve States Will Elect Governors or Other State Officials.

MANY PRETTY CONTESTS

NEW YORK, October 28.—There will be elections in twelve states one week from to-morrow. In Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Maryland, Mississippi and Kentucky, a Governor and other State officers are to be elected. In New Jersey, a Governor only; in New York, two associate justices of the Court of Appeals; in Pennsylvania, a State Treasurer; in Nebraska, a railroad commissioner and two regents of the State University; in Ohio, Utah and California, municipal officers. In New York, a number of judges and a sheriff are to be voted for. In Virginia, the members of the General Assembly of the Legislature is to be elected. The Prohibitionists have a State ticket in all the States except Maryland and Mississippi, and city tickets in Cleveland and Cincinnati, but not in San Francisco or Salt Lake. There is only one ticket in the Democratic column in Mississippi, and the result, of course, is not doubtful.

In Massachusetts there are ten tickets, five being divided among Democrats, who are engaged in a factional fight with the State delegation to the National Democratic Convention in New York in prospect. The Ballot Law Commission decided that Henry M. Whitney was the nominee for Governor. In Nebraska, the Democrats and Populists fused on the officials to be voted for throughout the State.

Maryland has pretty fight. In Maryland there will be a straight contest between the Democrats and the Republicans, only the two parties having made nominations for State officers. In addition to these a House of Delegates and a Senate are to be elected. The next Legislature will choose two United States Senators to hold the unexpired term of the late Arthur P. Gorman, and the other to take the place of Senator Rayner.

The Republicans adhere to the old plan of senatorial election, but the Democrats are to put into effect a new senatorial primary plan, which will elect every member of the Legislature to vote for the candidate receiving the highest vote in his district. The senatorial primaries are to be held on the 5th of November. The Democrats are concerned, will hereafter be a part of the regular elections in Maryland, three aspirants for the long term will be voted for November 5th, the candidate for the short term having no opposition.

The local election parties in New York county, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Salt Lake and San Francisco, are of particular interest this year.

In New York county, the Republicans and the Independence League (Hearst) forces have fused on the county ticket, which is made up of a number of court justices and a number of judges. This gives unusual interest to the contest, although the Republicans claimed the ticket. The ticket is headed by Judge Bruce, for Justice of the Supreme Court, the most important office; that of sheriff went to the Independence League, who nominated Morgan. Thomsen, has been William R. Hearst's campaign manager in several campaigns. Of the ten judges nominated the Republicans named five and the Independence League the others. Opposed to Thomsen on the Democratic ticket is Thomas F. Foley, Democrat, leader of the Second Assembly District, and a well-known figure in East Side politics, while James W. Gerard heads the Democratic ticket. The Fusion ticket, announced that he would support the Democratic ticket against the Republican-Hearst combine.

Tom Johnson's Issue. In Cleveland Congressman Theodore E. Burton is contesting the mayoralty with Thomas L. Johnson, Democratic nominee.

There are four tickets in Salt Lake City—the American, or anti-Mormon party, having made nominations for local offices, and the Republicans and Democrats and Socialists. In Cincinnati there is a triangular contest, Dempsey, Democrat, being opposed by Frank P. Griffin, vice Mayor two years ago on the same ticket with Dempsey and by Colonel Leopold Markbreit, a veteran German. The latter headed the city party ticket, which includes several Democratic nominees, and Markbreit is the Republican candidate.

In San Francisco the Democrats and the Good Government forces have combined and nominated the present acting Mayor, who is a Democrat, for re-election, as well as a Union Labor candidate, and the three-cornered fight is decidedly lively.

TO HONOR HER SOLDIERS.

Veterans and Daughters of Bedford to Unite in Erecting Memorial.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BEDFORD CITY, October 28.—There was an important meeting of the William R. Terry Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy held last week, when among other details of business the officers were elected for the ensuing year. Mrs. S. Griffin was re-elected president by a unanimous rising vote. Mrs. W. H. Mosby was re-elected vice president, and Mrs. Nelson Sale was elected second vice-president. Mrs. W. T. Yancey, who has been the efficient secretary of the chapter, was re-elected. The committee on the erection of the monument to the Confederate soldiers was organized. The committee will select the design for the monument to be erected to the Confederate soldiers. The committee will select the design for the monument to be erected to the Confederate soldiers. The committee will select the design for the monument to be erected to the Confederate soldiers.

Between $20,000 for General Watts. LEXINGTON, KY., October 28.—The price offered for General Watts (208 3-4) by William Simpson, of New York, was $25,000. General C. C. Watts, the owner of the horse, told Mr. Simpson that the horse is not for sale.

A CONDITION THAT CALLS FOR A TONIC

When Run Down and Debilitated Try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a Tonic That Is Also a Specific for Many Disorders of the Blood and Nerves.

When the health is run down from overwork, overstudy or from whatever cause, a good tonic is needed.

But sometimes what is mistaken for simple debility is a symptom of a more serious disorder, anemia perhaps, or a breaking down of the nervous system. By taking a tonic that is also a specific for many disorders of the blood and nerves the threatening disease may be prevented. That is what was done in the case of Mrs. Ora Ford, of 1008 Washington Boulevard, Chicago, Ill., who was undoubtedly in the early stages of anemia before Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured her. She says:

"I was completely run down in health for about a year. My blood was thin and poor and I had a great deal of trouble with my stomach and kidneys. My appetite was poor and I had no desire for food. What I ate distressed me. I had always been troubled with sick headaches which came on as often as three or four times a week. I also had dizzy spells, my breath was short and I frequently had pains in my side. I had no ambition or desire to do anything. I became so pale and thin that I looked terrible. My friends thought I was going into consumption."

"After I had tried several kinds of medicine that did me no good whatever I read of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in a newspaper and decided to give them a trial. I began picking up a little after taking about ten boxes of the pills and noticed that I was getting an appetite. I gradually got stronger, the dizzy spells left and my color came back. The headaches ceased to be so frequent or so severe. I can recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for troubles due to poor and impure blood."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

GILLETTE GETS SIX MONTHS

Ex-Vice-President of Mutual Life Is Convicted of Perjury.

NEW YORK, October 28.—A sentence of six months in the penitentiary was imposed by Justice Dowling upon Dr. Walter R. Gillette, former vice-president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, who was convicted of perjury. Dr. Gillette first denied that he had deposited $5,000 in a bank to be used in influencing legislation and then admitted to having done so. He testified to-day that Dr. Gillette was suffering with heart trouble, and that imprisonment might result in his death.

DR. WALTER R. GILLETTE.

SONOMA GIRL CHAMPION

All Other Great Trotters Decline Challenges to Race Her.

SONOMA, Calif., 2:05 1-4, goes into winter quarters the champion trotter of 1907. The challenge issued on her behalf to meet Major Delmar, 2:05 1-4; Sweet Marie, 2:02; George G., 2:05 1-4; or any other trotter in training, has been declined by her manager, George A. Webb, the manager of Sweet Marie, says it is too late in the season to attempt to take the chance of a meeting him out of the 2:06 class—New York Herald.

WHOLE ELEVEN DONE UP

Lima College Football Team Dismantled, Owing to Injuries to Players.

LIMA, OHIO, October 28.—Because of a collection of broken noses, broken legs, broken fingers and dislocated bones, declared to be unequalled by any other football team in the country, the Lima College eleven has been dismantled for the season. An inventory of the players revealed six broken noses, four broken legs, two dislocated bones and a dozen broken fingers.

Dona Patch's Fast Mile Against Time. NEW ORLEANS, October 28.—Dan Patch, the fastest man in the world, made a time Saturday in 2:01. His effort was made on a cunny track at City Park.

PURELY VEGETABLE

A great many blood medicines contain Mercury, Potash, Arsenic or some other strong mineral. These ingredients act unpleasantly and often dangerously on the system by affecting the stomach and upsetting the digestion, and sometimes do great damage by eating out the delicate lining and tissues of the body. No such results ever come from the use of S. S. S. This great medicine enjoys the distinction of being the only guaranteed purely vegetable blood remedy on the market. It is made entirely from the extracts and juices of healing, cleansing roots, herbs and barks of the forests and fields gathered under our own supervision. In the treatment of Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Blood Poison, and all blood diseases and disorders S. S. S. is a safe and efficient remedy. It removes from the blood all impurities, humors or poisons, and safely as well as surely cures all ills and ailments due to a bad condition of the blood. For more than forty years S. S. S. has been recognized as the best Blood Purifier and the Greatest of All Tonics. We have books on the different blood and skin diseases which we will be glad to send free to all who desire them, and will also furnish any medical advice wanted without charge.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE ORPHANS HOME MADE RATHER LOCAL

This Suggestion by Superintendent-Maxwell Causes Interesting Discussion.

SURPRISE TO THE BOARD

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLESTON, W. VA., October 28.—The Presbyterian Synod of Virginia began its fifth day's session with devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. P. C. Clark, of Bluefield, W. Va.

Some interest was awakened in discussing the report of the committee appointed to review the minutes of Norfolk Presbytery. It appears that at a recent meeting that presbytery allowed some of its members, who were called away from the place, to record their votes on a matter which was under consideration before the time at which the presbytery came to a vote. The board of the presbytery had no right to record and count such votes.

Dr. M. L. Lacy offered a report making reply to the address of President McAllister, of Hampden-Sydney College. This report, which was adopted, commended the college highly. A reply to the address of Dr. J. P. Smith on the assembly's home and school was adopted, commending this noble institution, which takes care of the children of missionaries and the widows and orphans of ministers.

The Rev. H. H. Swetts, secretary of the Synod, made a most earnest address, showing the great need of more ministers and of more workers in the field. He spoke encouragingly of the prospects for the future in these matters. He spoke also of the work of aiding the infirm, blind and lame, and of the work of the Synod in these matters. He said that the Synod was beginning to realize the importance of this cause, but that it was needed. The Synod was beginning to realize the importance of this cause, but that it was needed.

The Orphan's Home. The Rev. C. W. Maxwell, superintendent of the Orphan's Home, at Lynchburg, spoke of the work of the home. He said the home was now in a better position than it has been for some time. The home was now in a better position than it has been for some time.

He said this was very natural as long as the committee on admissions could not be prevented when the mothers could come personally to the committee and plead the cause of their children. When the mothers could not come, the committee could not have the same opportunity. He said the superintendent who can visit the homes of those applying for admission, and who can see the children in deciding who shall be admitted he now has. He made these suggestions because he felt that the interest of the whole Synod should be guarded rather than to have the institution localized in its interests.

Dr. Maxwell announced that he would retire from the office of superintendent at an early date. He spoke in very feeling terms of the privilege he had had of serving the Synod. He offered the following paper amending the by-laws governing the home:

To Amend the By-Laws of the Presbyterian Orphan's Home. 1. The three classes already provided for by the board shall consist of equal numbers of ministers and other members of the Presbyterian Church. 2. No Presbyter shall at any time be represented by more than one minister and one other member of the church on the board. 3. In addition to the three classes already provided for by the board of directors, the superintendent shall be ex-officio a member of the board. 4. The superintendent of the home shall be ex-officio chairman of the committee to admit children to the home. 5. The superintendent of the home shall have charge of the home. 6. The superintendent shall select matrons, teachers and other employees who assist him to fill the positions and receive such salaries as may be provided by the board of directors. 7. Any provisions of the by-laws in conflict with the action of the Synod shall be null and void. 8. The next regular annual meeting of the board. G. W. Finley moved that a committee be appointed, to whom the recommendations should be referred, to report at the next meeting. He also moved that the superintendent be asked to withdraw his resignation, and that the board be requested to continue Mr. Maxwell as superintendent until the next meeting of the Synod.

Surprise to the Board.

Rev. J. A. McMurray spoke for the board, saying that this matter had come as a great surprise to him and that the superintendent, who was the matter had come up, he did not see how it could be settled here, as the board could not now fully present its side of the case. He said that Mr. Maxwell said that no one had any right to make against any one else. There was only a difference of opinion as to the best plans of management. Dr. Finley spoke in favor of his motion, urging the synod to appoint this committee, that they might take the home and the matter of management was needed. Dr. R. H. Fleming urged that the synod be careful in any action that it might take. He spoke in very high terms of the members of the board and of Mr. Maxwell as men devoted to the best interests of the home.

Rev. G. H. H. moved that a committee be appointed to take all matters connected with the home into consideration and do what in its judgment seemed best.

Objection to this resolution was made by several speakers upon the ground that the committee was not authorized to take such action, and that it was not its duty to do so.

The committee on admissions was appointed to ascertain the powers of the synod under the charter of the institution, and to report at the next meeting. The committee was also appointed to see that the Synod was in accordance with the by-laws and management; this commission to complete its work if possible by the first of January next. Nothing had come before the synod has awakened as much interest as this in connection with the orphanage. The debate was earnest.

SIR THOMAS LIPTON TO RACE IN HOME WATERS

SOUTHAMPTON, October 28.—It is reported that Sir Thomas Lipton will build a twenty-three-metre yacht for class racing in British waters. While Sir Thomas has always been admired for his sports, he has been particularly interested in attempting to win the America's cup, there has always been an undercurrent of feeling that he ought to do better at home, and the report which is experienced that the New York Club should have declined his recent challenge is coupled with the satisfaction that he has turned his attention in other directions.

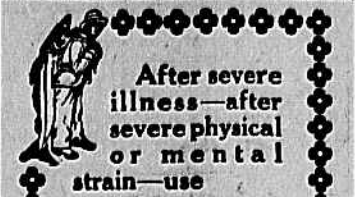

O'Connell's Sensational Sprint.

NEW YORK, October 28.—While no record was broken on the second night of the indoor meet of the Amateur Athletic Union, which was held at Madison Square Garden Saturday night, there was a mild sensation when John J. O'Connell, of the New York Athletic Club, in the six-hundred yard race, defeated the champion, C. J. Selts, the holder of the national Olympic and world's records for the distance.

Obituary.

Peter Augustus Ralston, who was killed in an automobile accident in Lansing, Mich., on Thursday night, was buried yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from the undertaking parlors of Mr. H. C. Ralston.

The services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. J. Calvin Stewart, of the Church of the Covenant, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ralston, and the Rev. Dr. J. W. S. Woodson, of the Church of the Holy Spirit.

After severe illness—after severe physical or mental strain—use Scott's Emulsion.

It builds up and holds up the strength of man and woman, girl and boy. It is the most wonderful "food-tonic" in the world.

ALL DRUGGISTS, 50c. AND $1.00.

The final scores for the games given by the New York Athletic Club seventy-six points, and the Irish-American Athletic Club sixty-six points.

OBITUARY

Peter Augustus Ralston.

Mr. Peter Augustus Ralston, who was killed in an automobile accident in Lansing, Mich., on Thursday night, was buried yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from the undertaking parlors of Mr. H. C. Ralston.

The services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. J. Calvin Stewart, of the Church of the Covenant, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ralston, and the Rev. Dr. J. W. S. Woodson, of the Church of the Holy Spirit.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. R. W. Stillman, D. O. James, T. D. Hicks, C. H. Ralston, and the Rev. Dr. J. W. S. Woodson, of the Church of the Holy Spirit.

Michael Long. FREDERICKSBURG, VA., October 28.—Michael Long, a well known local keeper of this city, died at his home yesterday afternoon at 10 o'clock, aged fifty years. He is survived by his wife, three daughters and one son.

During the Civil War Mr. Long served in the United States Navy. He was a member of the local lodge of the Grand Lodge of the State of Virginia.

W. D. Wharton. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FREDERICKSBURG, VA., October 28.—W. D. Wharton, of Orange county, died at his home in this city yesterday afternoon at 10 o'clock, aged fifty years. He is survived by his wife and four children.

W. D. Wharton. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FREDERICKSBURG, VA., October 28.—W. D. Wharton, of Orange county, died at his home in this city yesterday afternoon at 10 o'clock, aged fifty years. He is survived by his wife and four children.

Mrs. C. A. Moore. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., October 28.—Mrs. C. A. Moore, widow of John C. Moore, died yesterday at the home of her son, John N. Moore, in Princess Anne county.

William Morgan. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., October 28.—William Morgan died in this city this morning, aged about fifty-one years. He was a native of this city and was engaged in the business of a carpenter.

He was a director of the Cape Fear Electric Power Company, and was the general manager of the Southern Life Insurance Company. He was also a member of the Southern Railway Company.

He was a prominent citizen of this city and was well known to all who knew him. He was a member of the Southern Railway Company and was a director of the Cape Fear Electric Power Company.

He was a prominent citizen of this city and was well known to all who knew him. He was a member of the Southern Railway Company and was a director of the Cape Fear Electric Power Company.

He was a prominent citizen of this city and was well known to all who knew him. He was a member of the Southern Railway Company and was a director of the Cape Fear Electric Power Company.

He was a prominent citizen of this city and was well known to all who knew him. He was a member of the Southern Railway Company and was a director of the Cape Fear Electric Power Company.

He was a prominent citizen of this city and was well known to all who knew him. He was a member of the Southern Railway Company and was a director of the Cape Fear Electric Power Company.

He was a prominent citizen of this city and was well known to all who knew him. He was a member of the Southern Railway Company and was a director of the Cape Fear Electric Power Company.

He was a prominent citizen of this city and was well known to all who knew him. He was a member of the Southern Railway Company and was a director of the Cape Fear Electric Power Company.

He was a prominent citizen of this city and was well known to all who knew him. He was a member of the Southern Railway Company and was a director of the Cape Fear Electric Power Company.

He was a prominent citizen of this city and was well known to all who knew him. He was a member of the Southern Railway Company and was a director of the Cape Fear Electric Power Company.

He was a prominent citizen of this city and was well known to all who knew him. He was a member of the Southern Railway Company and was a director of the Cape Fear Electric Power Company.

He was a prominent citizen of this city and was well known to all who knew him. He was a member of the Southern Railway Company and was a director of the Cape Fear Electric Power Company.

He was a prominent citizen of this city and was well known to all who knew him. He was a member of the Southern Railway Company and was a director of the Cape Fear Electric Power Company.

He was a prominent citizen of this city and was well known to all who knew him. He was a member of the Southern Railway Company and was a director of the Cape Fear Electric Power Company.

He was a prominent citizen of this city and was well known to all who knew him. He was a member of the Southern Railway Company and was a director of the Cape Fear Electric Power Company.

He was a prominent citizen of this city and was well known to all who knew him. He was a member of the Southern Railway Company and was a director of the Cape Fear Electric Power Company.

He was a prominent citizen of this city and was well known to all who knew him. He was a member of the Southern Railway Company and was a director of the Cape Fear Electric Power Company.

SOCIAL SERVICE PROUDLY SCORED

Rev. Mr. Haley Refers to "Frantic Demonstrations" Necessary to Keep Organization Going.

REPLY TO CORRESPONDENT

More than one Richmond pastor took occasion on Sunday to reply to the correspondent of the Ladies' Home Journal who has been writing comments on the social reception extended to her in various churches throughout the country. The correspondent, Miss Smith, was employed in a somewhat sensational journalistic effort to visit a large number of churches in Virginia, and her accounts of her visits to no particular denomination and to no special locality. The record which is published in the current issue of the magazine, shows visits to thirteen churches in Richmond, and though the correspondent did not in any instance come up to her expectations, on the whole Richmond churches were contrasted favorably with those of the other cities Miss Smith visited.

No Lack of Cordiality.

Plainly dressed, the young woman, without introduction, attended some social gathering in a church, and without making herself conspicuous, waited to see if she were welcomed, and if not, to go away. The correspondent was most complimentary to the Rev. Jere Witherspoon, D. D., of Grace Street Church, who, with his usual courtesy, singled out the stranger and greeted her cordially. The Rev. Dr. J. W. S. Woodson, of the Church of the Holy Spirit, also made a most cordial and friendly reception of the visitor.

At the Sunday night service at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, one of the congregations visited and criticized by the correspondent, the Rev. Dr. J. W. S. Woodson, referred indirectly to the series of articles, saying: "No one can go away from a service here and say that welcome has not been extended to him in St. Paul's Church." Regular attendants of the services at St. Paul's agree with the Rev. Dr. J. W. S. Woodson's statement, and extend a most cordial invitation for his hearers to remain and meet him personally at the close of the service.

Not Fair to Churches. The Rev. Dr. J. J. Haley, D. D., pastor of the Seventh Street Christian Church, which has a general reputation in Richmond for its hospitality, and who, when the correspondent, Sunday night at some length, clearly outlining the differences between the social and religious services of churches, and religious services of churches, said in part:

"A chiel has been takin' names among us, and faith, she has printed 'em. Our Richmond churches, I judge, a dozen of them, have been weighed in the balance and found wanting in respect to sociability and friendliness to strangers. I am sure that is not true."

"With regard to the method of this experiment I have only to say that it is hardly fair to the churches. The results of any value, it is indisputably the duty of every church to extend a warm welcome to the stranger who enters its doors. The same time much depends on the stranger himself. If the visitor is a member of the denomination, he is represented by the church, and with which he worships he should walk down the aisle after the service, introduce himself to the pastor, who will introduce him to others, and believe me, that man will have no reason to complain of a cold reception. Each man generates an atmosphere of his own life, and if it happens to be a social iceberg the atmosphere generated will be cold, and other people, however different in temperament, their lives cannot make it warm. He that would have friends must show himself friendly. If the outsider who enters a church is not a member, he is outside of the fellowship of that church or of all others he may wait for the church, he should wait for the church, and it should not be long in doing it."

A More Important Question. "This experiment and enterprise of the Ladies' Home Journal has suggested to me a question of much deeper interest than that of sociability. The attitude of churches towards their visitors: What motive should actuate men and women when they go to church? What should people go to church for?"

Preaching, which for many years has occupied the central place in the Protestant devotion, has declined, and it is tolerated to-day only on condition of its extreme brevity. The spiritual life of the church is in danger, and this materialistic, commercial and superficial age that we must cater to, unregenerate tastes by shortening the service, and introducing the music, and making these frantic social demonstrations to keep the organization going. Is the game worth the candle?"

Is the game worth the candle? The divine service as pure worship with its spiritual attractions and distinctions, is being lost to the church. The spiritual life of the church is in danger, and this materialistic, commercial and superficial age that we must cater to, unregenerate tastes by shortening the service, and introducing the music, and making these frantic social demonstrations to keep the organization going. Is the game worth the candle?"

Is the game worth the candle? The divine service as pure worship with its spiritual attractions and distinctions, is being lost to the church. The spiritual life of the church is in danger, and this materialistic, commercial and superficial age that we must cater to, unregenerate tastes by shortening the service, and introducing the music, and making these frantic social demonstrations to keep the organization going. Is the game worth the candle?"

Is the game worth the candle? The divine service as pure worship with its spiritual attractions and distinctions, is being lost to the church. The spiritual life of the church is in danger, and this materialistic, commercial and superficial age that we must cater to, unregenerate tastes by shortening the service, and introducing the music, and making these frantic social demonstrations to keep the organization going. Is the game worth the candle?"

Is the game worth the candle? The divine service as pure worship with its spiritual attractions and distinctions, is being lost to the church. The spiritual life of the church is in danger, and this materialistic, commercial and superficial age that we must cater to, unregenerate tastes by shortening the service, and introducing the music, and making these frantic social demonstrations to keep the organization going. Is the game worth the candle?"

Is the game worth the candle? The divine service as pure worship with its spiritual attractions and distinctions, is being lost to the church. The spiritual life of the church is in danger, and this materialistic, commercial and superficial age that we must cater to, unregenerate tastes by shortening the service, and introducing the music, and making these frantic social demonstrations to keep the organization going. Is the game worth the candle?"

Is the game worth the candle? The divine service as pure worship with its spiritual attractions and distinctions, is being lost to the church. The spiritual life of the church is in danger, and this materialistic, commercial and superficial age that we must cater to, unregenerate tastes by shortening the service, and introducing the music, and making these frantic social demonstrations to keep the organization going. Is the game worth the candle?"

Is the game worth the candle? The divine service as pure worship with its spiritual attractions and distinctions, is being lost to the church. The spiritual life of the church is in danger, and this materialistic, commercial and superficial age that we must cater to, unregenerate tastes by shortening the service, and introducing the music, and making these frantic social demonstrations to keep the organization going. Is the game worth the candle?"

Is the game worth the candle? The divine service as pure worship with its spiritual attractions and distinctions, is being lost to the church. The spiritual life of the church is in danger, and this materialistic, commercial and superficial age that we must cater to, unregenerate tastes by shortening the service, and introducing the music, and making these frantic social demonstrations to keep the organization going. Is the game worth the candle?"

Is the game worth the candle? The divine service as pure worship with its spiritual attractions and distinctions, is being lost to the church. The spiritual life of the church is in danger, and this materialistic, commercial and superficial age that we must cater to, unregenerate tastes by shortening the service, and introducing the music, and making these frantic social demonstrations to keep the organization going. Is the game worth the candle?"

Is the game worth the candle? The divine service as pure worship with its spiritual attractions and distinctions, is being lost to the church. The spiritual life of the church is in danger, and this materialistic, commercial and superficial age that we must cater to, unregenerate tastes by shortening the service, and introducing the music, and making these frantic social demonstrations to keep the organization going. Is the game worth the candle?"

Is the game worth the candle? The divine service as pure worship with its spiritual attractions and distinctions, is being lost to the church. The spiritual life of the church is in danger, and this materialistic, commercial and superficial age that we must cater to, unregenerate tastes by shortening the service, and introducing the music, and making these frantic social demonstrations to keep the organization going. Is the game worth the candle?"

Is the game worth the candle? The divine service as pure worship with its spiritual attractions and distinctions, is being lost to the church. The spiritual life of the church is in danger, and this materialistic, commercial and superficial age that we must cater to, unregenerate tastes by shortening the service, and introducing the music, and making these frantic social demonstrations to keep the organization going. Is the game worth the candle?"

Is the game worth the candle? The divine service as pure worship with its spiritual attractions and distinctions, is being lost to the church. The spiritual life of the church is in danger, and this materialistic, commercial and superficial age that we must cater to, unregenerate tastes by shortening the service, and introducing the music, and making these frantic social demonstrations to keep the organization going. Is the game worth the candle?"

Is the game worth the candle? The divine service as pure worship with its spiritual attractions and distinctions, is being lost to the church. The spiritual life of the church is in danger, and this materialistic, commercial and superficial age that we must cater to, unregenerate tastes by shortening the service, and introducing the music, and making these frantic social demonstrations to keep the organization going. Is the game worth the candle?"

Is the game worth the candle? The divine service as pure worship with its spiritual attractions and distinctions, is being lost to the church. The spiritual life of the church is in danger, and this materialistic, commercial and superficial age that we must cater to, unregenerate tastes by shortening the service, and introducing the music, and making these frantic social demonstrations to keep the organization going. Is the game worth the candle?"

Is the game worth the candle? The divine service as pure worship with its spiritual attractions and distinctions, is being lost to the church. The spiritual life of the church is in danger, and this materialistic, commercial and superficial age that we must cater to, unregenerate tastes by shortening the service, and introducing the music, and making these frantic social demonstrations to keep the organization going. Is the game worth the candle?"

Is the game worth the candle? The divine service as pure worship with its spiritual attractions and distinctions, is being lost to the church. The spiritual life of the church is in danger, and this materialistic, commercial and superficial age that we must cater to, unregenerate tastes by shortening the service, and introducing the music, and making these frantic social demonstrations to keep the organization going. Is the game worth the candle?"

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Dr. J. C. Ayer, and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA